

RULES & REGULATIONS

IMU CHARIOFARE 2025

General

1. The Charity Run 2025 is organised by the IMU University (IMU) with the support and partnership of various sponsors.
2. By signing up for and providing any information, personal or otherwise, in order to gain access to the Charity Run or any activity(-ies) involving the organiser and the event sponsors, the individual is deemed to have given written permission for the organiser and the sponsors to collect, analyse, collate, share, disclose to third parties, sell, and/or otherwise use, without any liability to the individual, any personal information relating to that individual as may, in its sole discretion, deem fit, including, without any limitation, for its programs, planning, data processing, statistical or risk analysis, research, fundraising, and/or any other purposes in furtherance of the functions.
3. The organiser and the sponsors declare that by virtue of being the event owner or sponsor, they can use the services of third parties.
4. The organiser reserves the right to modify or substitute any of these rules and regulations of the event from time to time as they deem fit. If there is ambiguity in any of the provisions, the organiser shall be the authority to interpret, and in doing so, the organiser will take into account the interests of all affected participants. Any updates on the rules and regulations of the event will be notified on the official event website.
5. The organiser reserves the right to cancel the event at any time without prior notice to the participant, in which case the organiser will make efforts to inform the participant prior to the date of the event. If the event has to be cancelled, there shall be NO refund of fees paid unless the organiser deems fit to give a refund, and the organiser shall not be liable for any other loss or inconvenience caused.
6. There will be no fee refund if the event is cancelled for reason of force majeure. This means the occurrence of incidents that are beyond the control of the organiser that render it impossible or unsafe to hold the event.
7. The completion of the online registration confirms the participant's agreement to abide by the relevant rules and regulations of the organiser.
8. The participant AGREES to provide true, accurate, current, and complete information about the participant. The organiser may contact the participant from time to time by email. Any notice sent to the email address registered with the organiser shall be deemed as received by the participant. If the participant provides any information that is untrue, inaccurate, not current, or incomplete, or the organiser has grounds to suspect that such information is untrue, inaccurate, not current, or incomplete, the organiser may suspend or terminate the participant's registration and refuse any and all current or future use of the event website.

9. The organiser reserves the right to amend the event race routes as they deem fit for the safety of the participants and/or to prevent any potential hazards in the running of the event at any time without prior notice to the participant. In such cases, every effort will be made to inform the participant prior to the date of the event. The organiser shall not be liable for any other loss or inconvenience caused due to such changes.
10. While every reasonable precaution will be taken by the organiser to ensure the participants' safety, participants run at their own risk, and the organiser will not be responsible or held liable for any injury or death whatsoever arising from training for or during participation in the race. Participants are strongly encouraged to go for a medical examination and/or consult their medical practitioner prior to registration and before the actual race day.
11. The emergency contact column on the participant's bib number must be completed in full and accurately. Participants must wear the assigned bib number on his/her chest. Participants who are not wearing a bib number will be taken off the course by security officers/officials.
12. Road closure will be lifted after FOUR (4) hours from the commencement of the race. Participants who are still on route and choose to continue running after the cut-off time do so at their own risk.
13. A participant must retire from the race IMMEDIATELY if required to do so by a member of the official medical staff, race director, referee, and/or security officer.
14. Pets, bicycles, in-line skates, prams, pushcarts, shoes with built-in or attached rollers, and any other wheel-run objects are not allowed on the course other than official race and medical vehicles.
15. Once registration has been duly processed, there will be NO fee refund for participants who do not eventually take part in the event for whatever reason.
16. The organiser reserves the right to use any photographs (including those of participants), motion pictures, recordings, or any other media records of the event for any legitimate purpose, including commercial advertising and distribution to the sponsors.

17. The organiser reserves the right to limit and/or refuse entry without giving any reason or notice.
18. The organiser will not entertain nor be in any way responsible for any disputes arising from incomplete or inaccurate entry details in the registration form.
19. The organiser reserves the right to cancel and/or add any race category without prior notice to the participants.
20. Registration is valid upon fee payment. Participants are strictly not allowed to transfer their race entries to another party or change race categories after their registrations are confirmed.
21. A participant who commences the run before the actual start time of his/her registered race will be disqualified. (10 km - 6:30 a.m.; 5 km - 6:45 a.m.; 3 km - 7:00 a.m.)
